" Away from the tourist clichés and the highly popular area in the North of the island, while enjoying the sea, excursions and the Mauritian atmosphere, it is a charming corner to stay: Flic en Flac! It is on the West coast of the island that lies this splendid village, sheltered from the wind almost year-round. It is mainly here you'll have the privilege each morning to see very many cetaceans in this illustrious Indian ocean. The geographical situation of Flic en Flac, served by a well-developed transportation network, allows you to both travel to the capital and make an expedition in the wilderness on the West Coast. From hiking trips to seaside activities through shopping or visits to parks and lively evenings, Flic en Flac will seduce you, and this with an incredible Mauritian authenticity! "
