Festival

" The Lidi of Ferrara meet the new challenges of the tourism market by offering many types of holiday in the same place: accommodation suitable for groups, families, adolescents and adults. There are many opportunities for recreation on the beaches or in the main streets of every lido. A lively night life and the unique natural heritage of the Park of the Delta of the Po to a few minutes. Do not miss the city of Comacchio, typical, characteristic seaside town for its three bridges, in which, especially in summer, taking place many attractions and events, the fashion show at many festivals. Comacchio is also famous for its eel Festival and its valleys. Among the architectural wonders of the region should not forget the Basilica, the Abbey of Pomposa, destination for many tourists. Ravenna and Ferrara, historical cities, are a few kilometres away and are worth a visit for their charm and their wealth of art and culture. "
